Barter Bamboozle And Business

If you have a thousand pounds of dried fruit, and your neighbor a cow, and you "swap," that's barter. If your neighbor has no cow and you take his word for the fruit, that's credit. If he hands you a ten-pound note, that's cash. Gentle readers, cash is the transaction that stands for business in these days of fierce competition, quick sales and small profits.

Barter is obsolete.
Credit is on the wane.
Cash is here—the enemy of hard times, the blood of business and prop of Empires.
GRIMES' is the LARGEST CASH SHOE STORE in Marietta; it gives customers "good goods" bought for cash and sold for cash—no barter—no credit—just good hard cash, and a heap of satisfaction all round at

NORWOOD

A Pretty and Growing Suburb of Our City.

A year ago, if you had followed Greene street eastward for a few steps beyond the corporation line of the city you would have met with little else than barren cliffs and pasture fields. Everything was as quiet and rural in style as the most nervous person might wish. Today if you go to the same locality you will see, instead of open fields, dozens of pretty cottages and cozy homes, the comfortable abodes of many happy people. Not only will you see the pretty cottages, but you will also see factories and mills and kilns that give labor to these people. The happy homes could not remain happy very long without places of employment for their supporters. Among the principal places of employment and industry in that vicinity are the Ohio Valley Wagon Works, the Marietta Electric Company, Butts & McCormick's planing mill and the Acme Brick Company. It seems but a day to the people of Marietta since lots in Norwood were offered for sale, but the sharp advance in the price of those that have been sold may well illustrate the demand for building places and the extent to which this demand will cause this suburb to grow. Less than one year ago one man paid $500 for two lots. He was recently offered $1000 for the same lots, but he refused to sell them. This is but one case; any one who purchased lots a year ago can get double his investment in return if he wishes to dispose of them. Of course, one of the causes of this rapid advance in price was the extension of the street railway. But that was one of the conditions under which the lots were purchased. There are now over a dozen residences in course of construction and a large number have just been finished. Norwood will continue to grow, as laboring men choose to be near their work and the factories of Norwood will continue to increase in number and grow. Its people have already begun to ask to be annexed to Marietta, and it is but a question of a short while until it will become a legal part of our city as it is now a natural part.

CRIPPLED BEGGAR.
Breaks Plate Glass Window Valued at $150 Just for Revenge.

A crippled mendicant, who, upon interrogation by Officer Roney, gave the name of Frank Minch, was arrested last evening and taken to the city jail. Minch went into several business houses on Greene street and asked for money as he was a cripple, one leg having been cut off. In several cases where his request was refused he used abusive language. Finally he went into Bules saloon on Greene street and asked for a drink. This was refused him, whereupon he went out on the pavement, and using a heavy cane which he carried, he deliberately broke both the large plate glass fronts which form the show windows. It will cost in the neighborhood of $150 to replace the windows. Such vandalism cannot be condoned on the part of anyone and should be punished to the full extent of the law. The man said that he broke the windows in revenge, because the saloonist refused to give him a glass of liquor. Charity of any kind upon such a man is certainly misplaced.

Two Happy Fellows

Two United States prisoners were yesterday released from the Washington county jail in this city. They were William Dillon, of Cameron, Monroe county, and Forest Zouner, of Clarington, Monroe county. They were serving a sentence of one year each for robbing a star route mail. The length of their terms were shortened, however, by two months, for good behavior. They were in jail for some time awaiting trial also. Dillon has been in jail since Sept. 11, 1899, and Zouner since Oct. 2, 1899. When released they were each given a new suit of clothes, a railroad ticket and five dollars in money. The Washington county jail derives a revenue from the government for taking care of some of its prisoners.
